Chicago Fire FC Falls 4-1 to DC United

Chicago Fire FC (6-14-8, 26 points) fell 2-1 to D.C. United (8-12-8, 32 points) on Saturday night at SeatGeek Stadium.

The Fire fell behind in the first half after conceding twice in a three-minute span. The visitors opened the scoring in the 26th minute through league-leading scorer, forward Christian Benteke, then doubled their lead in the 29th minute with a goal from midfielder Gabriel Pirani. Chicago defender Andrew Gutman scored his first goal for his hometown Club in the 54th minute, blasting a powerful shot from outside the 18-yard-box to cut into the deficit. With the assist on Gutman's goal, winger Maren Haile-Selassie now leads the team in assists with eight in 2024.

NEXT MATCH: Chicago will conclude a three-game homestand against the New York Red Bulls on Saturday, Sept. 14 at Soldier Field. The match is scheduled to kick off at 7:30 p.m. CT and will be broadcast globally on MLS Season Pass, and transmitted locally in Spanish on WRTO 1200 AM and in English on 890 WLS-AM.

Notes:

- Andrew Gutman scored his first goal for the Chicago Fire in his 100th career MLS start.
- Fabian Herbers entered the match in the 74th minute, becoming the second German-born player to play in 200 Major League Soccer matches after Julian Gressel. Herbers has played 147 of his 200 matches with the Fire and is the longest-tenured player on the roster.
- Defender Rafael Czichos (yellow card accumulation) and Chase Gasper (leg); midfielders Ariel Lassiter (international duty) and Mauricio Pineda (leg); and forward Georgios Koutsias (international duty) were unavailable for today's match.
