VUCEVIC SCORES 24 POINTS AS BULLS HOLD OFF RAPTORS 122-121 FOR 4TH WIN IN 6 GAMES

Nikola Vucevic scored 24 points, Coby White added 19 and the Chicago Bulls held on to beat the Toronto Raptors 122-121 on Monday night for their fourth win in six games.

Talen Horton-Tucker scored 15 points and Ayo Dosunmu had 12 as seven Bulls players reached double figures.

Chicago's Lonzo Ball missed six of his first seven 3-point attempts before making a key shot from long distance late in the fourth.

Bulls guard Josh Giddey had to be helped off the court midway through the third quarter after rolling his right ankle while trying to defend a shot. He did not return. Giddey finished with 11 points, nine rebounds and eight assists in 24 minutes.

RJ Barrett scored 32 points and Grady Dick had 27 as Toronto almost erased a 16-point deficit in the fourth quarter, but the short-handed Raptors lost their fifth straight.

Toronto's Jamal Shhead banked in a 3-pointer at the final buzzer but it wasn't enough.

Chris Boucher had 11 points and 10 rebounds, and Ochai Agbaji added 15 points for Toronto.

Takeaways

Bulls: Vucevic returned after missing Sunday's win over Charlotte because of an illness, but two-time All-Star guard Zach LaVine sat out because of back spasms.

Raptors: Toronto played its second straight game without All-Star forward Scottie Barnes, who sprained his right ankle on Dec. 9. The Raptors took another hit when center Jakob Poeltl exited in the third because of a strained left groin.

Key moment

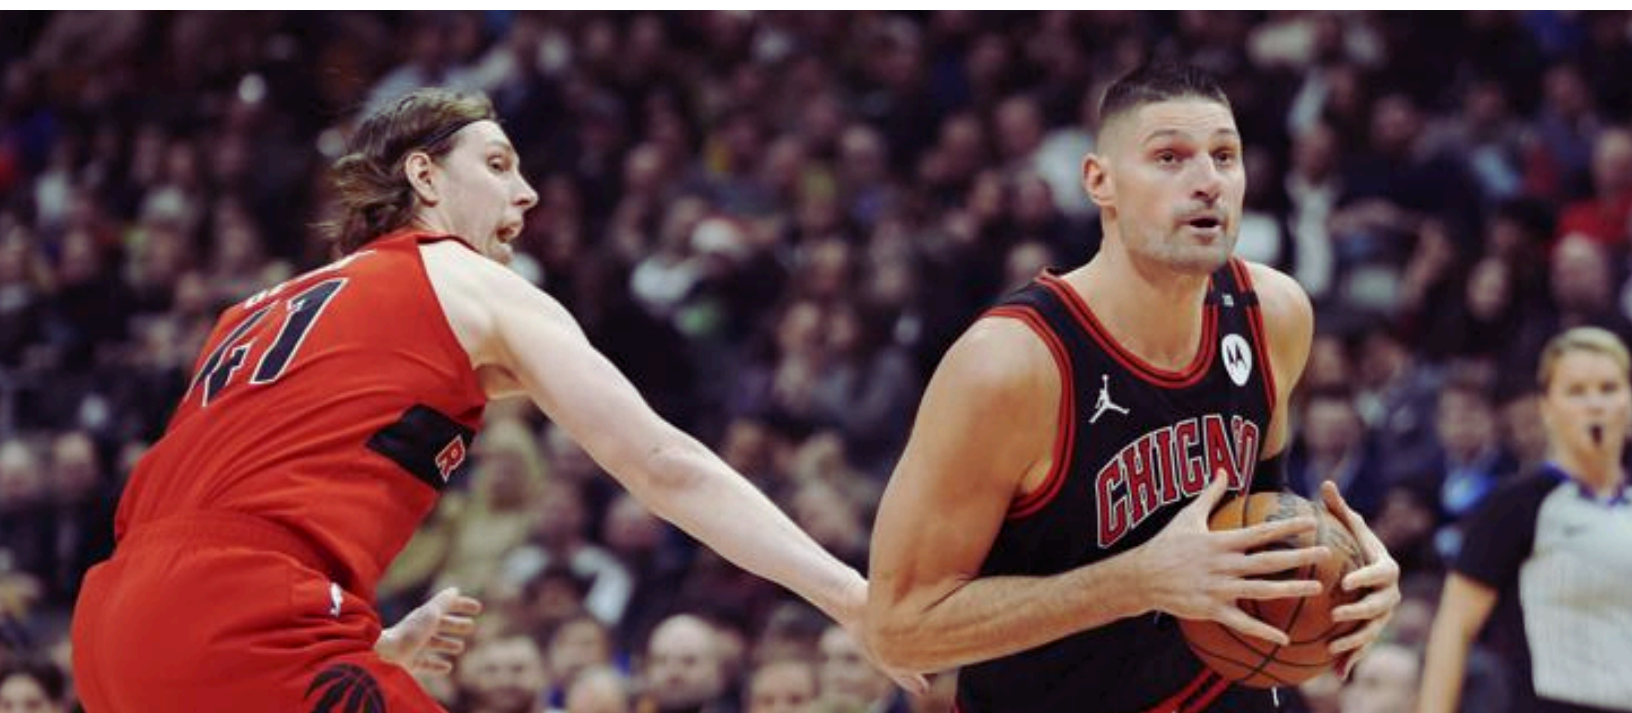

Chicago led 102-86 early in the fourth but Toronto cut the deficit to 112-111 on Barrett's hook shot with 2:28 left. White made a layup and Ball hit a 3 to keep the Bulls in front.

Key stat

Toronto fell to 0-14 this season when trailing at halftime. Chicago led 53-50 after two quarters.

Up next

Both teams play again Thursday, when Chicago visits Boston and Toronto hosts Brooklyn.

CHICAGO FIRE FC ACQUIRES DEFENDER JACK ELLIOTT

Chicago Fire FC today announced that the Club has signed defender Jack Elliott as a free agent. Elliott is under contract with the Club through the 2025 season with a Club option for 2026.

Elliott joins the Fire after spending the past eight seasons with the Philadelphia Union, where he helped lead the team to the 2022 MLS Cup Final and the 2020 Supporters' Shield, awarded to the team with the best regular season record in MLS.

"Jack's decision to join the Fire as a free agent marks an important step in our efforts to build a highly competitive squad for next season," said Chicago Fire FC Director of Football and Head Coach Gregg Berhalter. "Jack's signing immediately strengthens our team, as he brings extensive MLS experience, strong technical ability, and leadership along the backline. We're excited to welcome Jack to the Fire and look forward to his contributions on and off the field as we work toward achieving our goals."

"I am genuinely excited for this next chapter at the Chicago Fire," said Elliott. "I believe in the vision this organization has for this coming year and the Club's future as a whole. I've never had a problem with being the underdog, and I can't wait to get to work with the group and prove to everyone what we are capable of."

Elliott, 29, made 270 appearances across all competitions with the Union, including 223 regular season appearances (212 starts). As a center back, Elliott recorded 10 goals and nine assists in regular season play, while also adding three playoff goals in 11 postseason appearances (10 starts) for the Union. Those three tallies included two goals in the 2022 MLS Cup Final against Los Angeles FC and a goal in the 4-3 comeback win against the New York Red Bulls in 2019 to lead the Union to their first-ever playoff victory. He was also named a finalist for the 2017 MLS Rookie of the Year Award after making 30 appearances (29 starts) in his debut season as a professional. The London, England, native was originally drafted by the Union in the fourth round (77th overall) of the 2017 MLS SuperDraft. He signed with Philadelphia on Feb. 24, 2017, and made his MLS debut on April 1 of that same year against D.C. United.

Prior to being drafted by Philadelphia, Elliott played four years of collegiate soccer at West Virginia University. While at West Virginia, Elliott appeared in 68 matches, recording six goals and five assists. Elliott was named to the 2016 NSCAA All-Great Lakes Region First Team in addition to earning CoSIDA Academic All-America First Team honors, becoming WVU's first three-time Academic All-America honoree.
